I love this game. only if there was a black ops 2 mac edition. I don't have many hours on steam yet, not on Nether Resurrected because 90% of my gametime was on the original nether client.

This is exactly like earlier Nether, but now it's owned by Fredaikis.

The game has already died twice, but I choose to recommend this because the game does have a HUGE potential and until now the new devs have been incredibly active with updates so if they're able to keep it up, I'm optimistic there's a chance.

I find the game extremely enjoyable, because it's very unique in a way. It gives off a really dark atmosphere, while also offering tons of fast paced play. And in the start the game will seem like a struggle, but as soon as you start getting kills, the game feels quite rewarding.

Tho, there's still lots of bugs. Some small, some big, but again, they seem to be actively updating.

Also I'd like to mention that this game is heavily focused on PvP where most people, me included, shoot on sight. You might want to kill some monsters for items, but there's sadly not enough content for people to really focus on it. Players are what's valuable.

EDIT:

I want to mention that after about 30 more hours I've made some pretty cool friends just through Nether.. Hey ! I am a youtuber and bought the game and made a walkthrough ! I got this game just cause I liked the photos and the videos! I Loved it ! But I would want some more gameplay and some more content the price is very low so if anyone that wants to play different for 30 mins should buy it !

Link : <https://youtu.be/qI2yhc7pxY8>. I can't get my pc mark to run. Very hard game yet is fun to play and the retro experience is also very nice.. what do i do game doesnt work :( or game doesnt work only on windows 10 ?. The Invisible Hours is one of my favorite games this year. Then again, it's right up my alley. It combines some of my favorite elements: free exploration with deep character and plot development and lots of interesting surprises that completely throw you and change how you look at everything. The game is full of twists and turns. While ultimately, you can see everything, in the moment gameplay centers around pausing, rewinding, and fast forwarding time to be in different places at once. You are often pulled in many different directions at once. There were usually so many interesting things going on that I had trouble deciding which to investigate first. For me, that is the sign of a good game! We also both enjoyed the visual style, the voice acting and the setting. While the world is practically non interactable, it is the characters and time itself that provide the puzzle. If you hate walking sims, don't play this. If you like a juicy mystery and exploring to find crazy surprises, I highly recommend this game!. I've only played about 45 minutes of this game (collected 5/8 gold things), but I already love it. The art style, the music, the levels. It's great! My one complaint is sometimes the camera doesn't follow you smoothly, sometimes it zooms in way too far when you are up against a wall and is sometimes difficult to turn, which in turn makes platforming difficult.

I 100% recommend this game. I paid $4.99 and have gotten 45 minutes of entertainment out of it, and plan to get much, much more!

A+ for effort. Sports video games are the only thing I truly miss about console gaming. While I can spend a fair amount of time with FIFA and NBA 2k, they aren't what I want to be honest. I want the NHL, I want the NFL, MLB, and NCAA football and basketball. Axis 2017 brings us one step closer to having a great PC american football game.

Do not buy Axis Football if you want a perfect, Madden EA quality game. The playbooks are basic and quite limited, the passing game is a bit wonky, franchise mode is nothing compared to an EA or 2k game, I really could go on for a while here.

That being said, I definitely recommend Axis Football 2017, and am quite happy with my purchase. (on sale for 17.99$. ) While far from perfect, Axis has released a fun football game for PC gamers. This years game is a marked improvement over last years offering. The developers really seem like they want to make the best football game possible, and I'm excited about what the next version will look like. And if you don't like the non NFL teams in the base game, there are mods that give you lots of options.

TL;DR?

It's far from perfect, but it beats a modded Madden 08. Mods in development, game constantly improving. If you want a american football game on the PC, I suggest supporting these developers and their effort.. this is one of thows games that is for ppl who liked the 13th hr and outhor old pc games like that it is not long game and yes it is buggy but i payed $1.99 for it it is worth it if you like the old games. Terrible game. There are many glitches and it destroyed my save file for no reason!. This game isn't quite sure what it is. RPG and wargame... It tries to be similar to the Total War franchise in regards to its combat. Unfortunately, a number of the units are unbalanced, and so the combat can take a lot longer than it should. It adds spells, which I found to be an annoyance, as my archers were always literal lightning rods.

The overarching strategy seemed deficient as well, as there aren't many ways to get gold so tech, infrastructure and army all suffer. It also limits the number of armies that you can have roaming around, so wandering armies just take over buildings of mine, which admittedly didn't seem to affect me at all.

As far as the RPG factor goes, it again struggles. For some reason the player is fighting Irish demons. You don't get to see or use King Arthur, and end up killing multiple knights of the round table. Other knights don't even appear, which would be understandable for most, but they cut out Gawain, and left in Agravain? A lot of the leveling really didn't feel like it mattered for heroes.

Overall, depending on what you want there are games which do what this game does, only much better. I can't recommend this game.. Went in expecting shovelware. Came out pleasantly surprised by a unique twist on the puzzle platformer genre.

8.5/10. GIVE ME MY MONEY BACK!!!

The WORST GAME i bought this year. The graphics are from 1995 and the gameplay is boring like there is no tomorrow.

There is only 12 servers to play on, none of them under 140 ping and i'm on the US East Coast.

DO NO SPEND YOUR MONEY ON THIS, YOU WILL REGRET IT.
